(May 26, 2022) NFX-Backed Fintech Platform, Captain, Introduces 'Build Now, Pay Later for Deductibles' Solution to Help Homeowners Swiftly Finance Rebuilds after Natural Disasters

Captain today announced its 'Build Now, Pay Later for Deductibles' feature for homeowners' insurance deductibles. This latest offering represents another way Captain is streamlining recovery in the wake of natural disasters.

(March 24, 2022) NFX-Backed Fintech Platform, Captain, Raises $104M to Help Homeowners Rebuild Quickly After Natural Disasters

Captain emerged from stealth today with $104 million in total financing to help homeowners rebuild six times faster after natural disasters by paying general contractors upfront

Company Background

Headquartered in San Francisco, CA, and operations in Louisville, KY, Captain provides capital to communities across the country impacted by natural disasters. Its unique approach to storm recovery ensures policyholders get their repairs done after natural disasters by advancing money to their contractors to pay for materials, labor, and fees associated with repairs — all without having to wait on their insurers. Captain was founded by meteorology entrepreneur Demetrius Gray, and is backed by leading venture capital firms NFX, GGV Capital, Max Ventures, and Red Swan Ventures.
